Meet the LPTS Team at General Assembly!

AG Annica Gage, Chaplain
agage@lpts.edu

Rev. Annica Gage serves as Chaplain at Louisville Seminary. She nurtures the spiritual life of the campus community through worship, pastoral care, retreats, and faith formation opportunities. Her ministry focuses on creating spaces where students, faculty, and staff can grow in faith, belonging, and vocational discernment.

ER Emalee Rose, VP for Advancement
erose@lpts.edu

Emalee Rose, CRE, leads advancement efforts at Louisville Seminary, overseeing fundraising, donor engagement, and alum relations. She is dedicated to connecting supporters with the Seminary's mission and helping cultivate resources that empower students, faculty, and programs to thrive. Her work helps ensure that future generations of faith leaders have access to transformative theological education.

AP Andrew Pomerville, President
apomerville@lpts.edu

Rev. Dr. Andrew D. Pomerville serves as the 11th President of Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary. A pastor, educator, and leader with extensive experience in theological education and church leadership, he is passionate about preparing leaders who proclaim the Gospel, care for all, and work for justice in communities everywhere. Since joining LPTS in 2023, he has focused on strengthening community engagement, enrollment growth, and the Seminary's mission-centered impact.

AT Alex Thomas, VP for Enrollment & Student Success
athomas@lpts.edu

Alex Thomas oversees enrollment and student services at Louisville Seminary, helping students navigate their journey from initial inquiry through graduation. He is passionate about student success, building welcoming pathways into theological education, and ensuring students have the support they need to thrive in four interconnected areas of holistic student support: Mind, Body, Spirit, and Community.
